To whom it may concern:

I am hereby addressing you to indicate that the decision made on the claim that I brought on behalf of Germinio Martínez, who was my father, is not the best. My father does not deserve a negative decision like this, as he was an employee of the Corporación Azucarera for many years, and this is not the payment he deserves. He worked for so many years, and he was even given residency, which he used to be able to provide the service that the company deserved. He would sacrifice when necessary even Saturdays and Sundays so that that Plant could be the Corporation. He was the only mechanic/blacksmith that the Corporation had. This is why I ask you to consider this case, as I believe what is being done against him is an injustice. Otherwise, I will seek justice with a higher forum.

Sincerely,

Elías Martínez de Jesús (Son)
